

Activities, Events, and Services for PCBA Members:

- Annual Book Arts and Printers' Fair at Fort Mason in San Francisco, a place to sell your book arts-related wares.
- Annual group exhibitions of member work, including a triennial exhibition at the San Francisco Public Library.
- Studio visits and artist talks.
- Quarterly publication of the Ampersand, our book arts journal (includes a biannual book arts resource guide).
- Bimonthly publication of etc., our calendar of book arts events and exhibition opportunities, and a place where members can advertise classes or newly published work.
- The PCBA website where members can access the Etc. in digital form, refer to an online membership directory, and display their work.
- An online Services Directory where members can advertise their services.

The Mission of the Pacific Center for the Book Arts is to:

Provide support for the development of our members in the various fields of the book arts, including typography, printing, calligraphy, illustration, bookbinding, conservation, papermaking and printmaking.

Provide social activities for the member community.

Encourage the development of professional practices in the various book arts through exhibits and educational programs.

Create opportunities to promote the work of our members.

Join us in keeping an active book arts community alive and active in the San Francisco Bay Region and throughout the world. We welcome members from all locales at all skill levels.

PACIFIC CENTER FOR THE BOOK ARTS

The Pacific Center for the Book Arts is a volunteer-run, member-services organization for people who love creating, binding, viewing/reading, conserving, or collecting books as artistic/cultural objects with intentional structure, content, and meaning. Our members include calligraphers, custom binders, printmakers, book artists, conservators, and many others. We share skills, provide encouragement, and make new friends.

Volunteer with PCBA: Share Your Skills and Develop New Skills

Do you want to learn how to put an exhibition together? Have a workshop you'd like to teach or attend? Do you want to write an Ampersand article on a topic of interest to you? Volunteering a couple of hours for a PCBA event or opening your studio to a visit from a small group is a good way to meet other members. Check the volunteer activities below that you'd like to find out more about:

- Hanging a show, arranging work for an exhibition, preparing an exhibition checklist.
 - Planning and carrying out the Printers' Fair.
 - Designing or printing show announcements or posters, catalogs, or signs.
 - Helping with receptions and sales of members work.
 - Joining PCBA's Board and helping to plan events and guide the organization as a whole.
- Below, give us some specifics about how you would like to be involved.
